NOTICE OF EXTENSION FOR MUNICIPALITIES TO PROVIDE WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS ON THE DRAFT NUNAVUT LAND USE PLAN

The Nunavut Planning Commission (NPC) will conduct a Public Hearing on the Draft Nunavut Land Use Plan (DNLUP), scheduled for March 21-28, 2017, in Iqaluit.

Written comments on the DNLUP were to be submitted to the NPC by January 13, 2017. The NPC received requests from Nunavut Municipalities for an extension to provide submissions. The Commissioners are satisfied those municipalities were unable to prepare their written submissions for a period of time following their elections due to Section 134 of the Hamlets Act as set out in their correspondence.

The Commission is providing an extension to allow Municipalities to provide written submissions until February 15, 2017.

Documents, including recent written submissions, are posted on the NPC website and available for download at: www.nunavut.ca. To review the public record of proceedings, or for other related information, please contact:
